

Dark as a Dungeon

3/4 timing

Intro:

[G] Oh come all you young fellers so [C] brave and so [D] fine
[G] Seek not your fortune way [C] down in the [G] mine
[G] It'll form as a habit and [C] seeps in your [D] soul
Till the [G] blood in your veins runs as [C] black as the [G] coal

Well it's [D] dark as a dungeon [C] damp as the [G] dew
Where the [D] danger is double and [G] pleasures are few
Where the [G] rain never falls the [C] sun never [D] shines
It's a [G] dark as a dungeon way [C] down in the [G] mine

[G] Well it's many a man that I've [C] seen in my [D] day
[G] Who lived just to labour his [C] whole life a-[G]-way
[G] Like a fiend with his dope and a [C] drunkard with his [D] wine
A [G] man will have lust for the [C] lure of the [G] mine

Well it's [D] dark as a dungeon [C] damp as the [G] dew
Where the [D] danger is double and [G] pleasures are few
Where the [G] rain never falls the [C] sun never [D] shines
It's a [G] dark as a dungeon way [C] down in the [G] mine

[G] I hope when I'm dead and my [C] ages shall [D] roll
[G] That my body will blacken and [C] turn into [G] coal
[G] Then I'll look from the door of my [C] heavenly [D] home
And [G] pity the miner [C] digging my [G] bones

Well it's [D] dark as a dungeon [C] damp as the [G] dew
Where the [D] danger is double and [G] pleasures are few
Where the [G] rain never falls the [C] sun never [D] shines
It's a [G] dark as a dungeon way [C] down in the [G] mine
