

Rocking Carol. Or "Little Jesus, Sweetly Sleep". An English Christmas carol by Percy Dearmer. It was translated from Czech in 1928 and is performed as a lullaby to the baby Jesus. 1960s Julie Andrews.

4/4 time. Intro [G/] [D/] [A7/] [D/]

[D] Little Jesus, [E7/] sweetly [A/] sleep, [E7/] do not [A/] stir;
[G/] We will [D/] lend a [A7/] coat of [D/] fur,
[D/] We will [G/] rock you, [E7/] rock you, [A/] rock you,
[D7/] We will [G] rock [D] you, [E7/] rock you, [A7/] rock you:
[D] See the fur to [E⁷] keep [G#dim] you [A7/] warm,
[G/] Snugly [D/] round your [A/] tiny [D/] form.

[D] Mary's little [E7/] baby, [A/] sleep, [E7/] sweetly [A/] sleep,
[G/] Sleep in [D/] comfort, [A7/] slumber [D/] deep;
[D/] We will [G/] rock you, [E7/] rock you, [A/] rock you,
[D7/] We will [G] rock [D] you, [E7/] rock you, [A7/] rock you:
[D] We will serve you [E⁷] all [G#dim] we [A7/] can,
[G/] Darling, [D/] darling [A/] little [D] man