

Instrumental Intro:

[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Verse 1:

I've [Am] just come down from the Isle of Skye. I'm [G] no very big and I'm awful shy
And the [Am] lassies shout when I go by, [G] "Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?"

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Verse 2:

A [Am] lassie took me to a ball and [G] it was slippery in the hall
And [Am] I was feart that I would fall for I [G] had nae on my [Am] troosers

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Verse 3:

Now [Am] I went down to London town and I [G] had some fun in the underground
The [Am] ladies turned their heads around, saying, [G] "Donald, where are your [Am] trousers?"

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Verse 4:

To [Am] wear the kilt is my delight. It [G] is not wrong, I know it's right
The [Am] 'ighlanders would get a fright if they [G] saw me in the [Am] troosers

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Verse 5:

The [Am] lassies want me every one. Well [G] let them catch me if they can
You [Am] cannae take the breeks off a Hieland man and [G] I don't wear the [Am] troosers

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am]

Ending:

Let the [Am] wind blow high, let the wind blow low. [G] Through the streets in my kilt I'll go
[Am] All the lassies say, "Hello_ [G] Donald, where's your [Am] troosers?" [Am ↓ ]